INTERNATIONAL STUDENT PROGRAM

Global Vision Christian School in Pennsylvania is a gigantic international student program. With students from all around the world, the school itself becomes a community that is diverse yet individualized, friendly yet respectful, safe yet full of excitement, global yet near, and future-driven yet making changes today. The list of enrollments by nation includes South Korea, China, India, Indonesia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, and United States.

In addition to running its own international student program, GVCS in PA is working closely with its sister campuses in Korea and other international schools around the world to provide

Cultivating Leaders
Who Will Lead 10 Billion People

short-term exchange programs for elementary and middle school students as well, some of whom decide to return for their high school years.

All students from abroad stay in dormitories, which leads to a development of highly diversified cultural environment.
